

LivYoga Website

Page2 attained a balance of flow and structure for the LivYoga website. The design needed to set a tone — gently but effectively — that reflected the spirit and style of this yoga studio. Robust CMS (Content Management System) capabilities were required in order to allow the client to quickly & easily make day-to-day updates to the site, including complete class scheduling, pricing and more. < view live >