

Pearson Catalog Covers

As a longstanding and valued client — with roots extending deep into the Page2 staff and ownership — Pearson calls upon us to develop their annual K-12 discipline-specific catalog covers. This project requires close collaboration with the client to keep stride with times and technologies that affect the worlds of both education and design, resulting in strategies that offer a balance between trends and traditions.