

Symrise Product Portfolio

Operating within the branding guidelines established by Symrise headquarters in Europe, Page2 developed this striking product portfolio that presents complex chemical specifications in a visually appealing way. The portfolio is organized by ingredients, using vivid photography and color-coding — prominently on the section-opening table of contents tabs, subtly in the flowing product listing pages — for simple navigation.